

BUILDING HOPE

Hope is what motivates us to get through difficult and challenging times. Four Corners, the City of York, Kilgore Memorial Library, and UNL Extension are taking action to create positive change and build hope in our community.

Take the Hope Survey

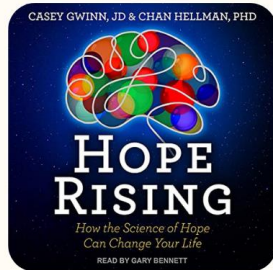

Use the Link Below or QR Code

https://nalhd.sjc1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_81aNeHHH0sFLJ6m

Learn ways to build hope in yourself and others. Retake the survey to watch your level of hope grow. The survey is completely anonymous.

"Hope Rising"
Community Book Discussions

Keep learning about hope! Several book discussions are being hosted across the Four Corners District. Check the back of this flyer for the schedule!

For more information, visit:
www.fourcorners.ne.gov

"Hope Rising" Community Book Discussions

TUESDAY
9/17/2024
6:00PM

Chris Blanke, Four Corners Health Dept., will lead an in-person discussion at Kilgore Memorial Library, York. Planned activities for children will be offered while parents attend. York Community Coalition (YC3) will provide a light meal for those who attend this in-person discussion. No registration is required for this session.

TUESDAY
9/17/2024
7:00PM

Carrie Gottschalk, Nebraska Extension, will lead a virtual discussion using Zoom. You must register in advance to receive the Zoom link. Registration will be open until the event begins.

https://us02web.zoom.us/join/register/tZ_YsceqorjsrHdOGY4duYWsGZRZhCW2_d7B7N

THURSDAY
9/26/2024
12:00PM

Jeff Finch, York University Associate Professor of Psychology, will host an in-person book discussion at the York University Academic Resource Center (ARC) at Levitt Library on the York University campus. This event is open to the community. Feel free to bring your lunch to the discussion. Free coffee will be available. Register by contacting Jeff Finch at jfinch@york.edu.

✉ info@fourcorners.ne.gov

☎ (402) 710-0451

🌐 www.fourcorners.ne.gov

BUILDING HOPE

Hope is what motivates us to get through difficult and challenging times. Four Corners, the City of York, Kilgore Memorial Library, and UNL Extension are taking action to create positive change and build hope in our community.

Take the Hope Survey

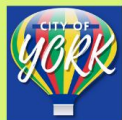

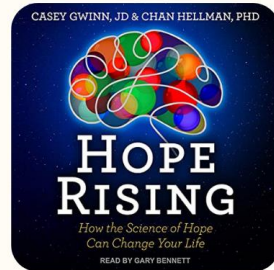

Use the Link Below or QR Code

https://nalhd.sjc1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_81aNeHHH0sFLJ6m

Learn ways to build hope in yourself and others. Retake the survey to watch your level of hope grow. The survey is completely anonymous.

“Hope Rising”
Community Book Discussions

Keep learning about hope! Several book discussions are being hosted across the Four Corners District. Check the back of this flyer for the schedule!

For more information, visit:
www.fourcorners.ne.gov

“Hope Rising” Community Book Discussions

TUESDAY
9/17/2024
6:00PM

Chris Blanke, Four Corners Health Dept., will lead an in-person discussion at Kilgore Memorial Library, York. Planned activities for children will be offered while parents attend. York Community Coalition (YC3) will provide a light meal for those who attend this in-person discussion. No registration is required for this session.

TUESDAY
9/17/2024
7:00PM

Carrie Gottschalk, Nebraska Extension, will lead a virtual discussion using Zoom. You must register in advance to receive the Zoom link. Registration will be open until the event begins.

<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/9171234567>

THURSDAY
9/26/2024
12:00PM

Jeff Finch, York University Associate Professor of Psychology, will host an in-person book discussion at the York University Academic Resource Center (ARC) at Levitt Library on the York University campus. This event is open to the community. Feel free to bring your lunch to the discussion. Free coffee will be available. Register by contacting Jeff Finch at jfinch@york.edu.